

I respectfully urge the FCC to support XM Radio's ability to provide diverse and relevant programming.
To that end, I ask you not to grant the National Association of Broadcasters' petition 04-160.

I got satellite radio because of the lack of diversity and relevance of most over-the-air programming. (A notable exception is NPR programming.)

Do not cripple satellite radio.

Thank you for considering my views on this subject.